8 SYNOPSIS: Existing law does not require the Alabama
9 High School Athletic Association to adopt a rule to 10 allow for the review by video of certain types of
11 officiating calls during all state championship
12 football games for its member schools.

13 This bill would require the Alabama High
14 School Athletic Association to adopt a rule to 15 allow for the review by video of certain types of
16 officiating calls during all state championship
17 football games for its member schools.

19 A BILL
20 TO BE ENTITLED
21 AN ACT

23 Relating to the Alabama High School Athletic 24 Association; requiring the Alabama High School Athletic
25 Association to adopt a rule to allow for the review by video
26 of certain types of officiating calls during all state
27 championship football games for its member schools.

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

2 Section 1. (a) The Alabama High School Athletic
3 Association shall adopt a rule to allow for the review by 4 video of certain types of officiating calls made during all
5 state championship football games for its member schools.

6 (b) The rule shall provide the standards for an
7 officiating call to be changed by an official, the source of 8 all reviewable video, the plays subject to review, the plays
9 that may not be reviewed, the process to review plays, and the 10 equipment to be used in the review process.

11 Section 2. This act shall become effective on the 12 first day of the third month following its passage and 13 approval by the Governor, or its otherwise becoming law.
