15 dilution of a mark occurs; would increase the 16 damages for a trademark violation; and would allow 17 reasonable attorney fees.

13 "~~Likelihood of injury to business reputation or of~~ 14 ~~dilution of the distinctive quality of a mark registered under~~ 15 ~~this article, or a mark valid at common law, including a trade~~
16 ~~name valid at common law, shall be a ground for injunctive~~
17 ~~relief notwithstanding the absence of competition between the~~ 18 ~~parties or the absence of confusion as to the source of goods~~
19 ~~or services.~~

20 "(a) Subject to the principles of equity, the owner
21 of a mark which is famous and distinctive, inherently or 22 through acquired distinctiveness, in this state shall be 23 entitled to an injunction against another person's commercial 24 use of a mark, if such use begins after the famous mark has 25 become famous and is likely to cause dilution of the famous 26 mark, and to obtain such other relief as is provided in this 27 section.

1 "(b) A mark is famous if it is widely recognized by 2 the general consuming public of this state or a significant 3 geographic area in this state as a designation of source of 4 the goods or services or the business of the mark's owner. In 5 determining whether a mark is famous, a court may consider 6 factors such as, but not limited to:

7 "(1) The duration, extent, and geographic reach of 8 advertising and publicity of the mark in this state, whether 9 advertised or publicized by the owner or third parties.

10 "(2) The amount, volume, and geographic extent of 11 sales offered under the mark in this state.

12 "(3) The extent of actual recognition of the mark in

15 registration in this state, or a federal registration under 16 the Act of March 3, 1881, or under the Act of February 20, 17 1905, or on the principal register under the Trademark Act of 18 1946, as amended.

19 "(c) In an action brought under this section, the 20 owner of a famous mark shall be entitled to injunctive relief 21 throughout the geographic area in which the mark is found to 22 have become famous prior to commencement of the junior use,
23 but not beyond the borders of this state. If the person
24 against whom the injunctive relief is sought willfully
25 intended to cause dilution of the famous mark, then the owner
26 shall also be entitled to the remedies set forth in this

1 chapter, subject to the discretion of the court and the 2 principles of equity.

3 "(d) The following shall not be actionable under 4 this section:

5 "(1) Any fair use, including a nominative or 6 descriptive fair use, or facilitation of such fair use, of a 7 famous mark by another person other than as a designation of 8 source for the person's own goods or services or business,
9 including use in connection with:

10 "a. Advertising or promotion that permits consumers
11 to compare goods or services or businesses; or

12 "b. Identifying and parodying, criticizing, or 13 commenting upon the famous mark owner or the goods or services
14 or business of the famous mark owner.

15 "(2) Noncommercial use of the mark and all forms of 16 news reporting and news commentary.

17 "§8-12-18.

18 "(a) Any owner of a mark registered under this 19 article may proceed by suit to enjoin the manufacture, use, 20 display, or sale of any counterfeits or imitations thereof and 21 any court of competent jurisdiction may grant injunctions to 22 restrain such manufacture, use, display, or sale as may be by 23 the said court deemed just and reasonable, and may require the 24 defendants to pay to such owner all profits derived from 25 and/or all damages suffered by reason of such wrongful 26 manufacture, use, display, or sale, and to pay the costs of 27 the action; and such. In assessing profits, the owner shall be

1 required to prove defendant's sales only; defendant must prove 2 all elements of cost or deduction claimed. The court may also 3 order that any such counterfeits or imitations in the 4 possession or under the control of any defendant in such case,
5 be delivered to an officer of the court, or to the 6 complainant, to be destroyed.

7 "(b) In assessing damages the court may enter 8 judgment, according to the circumstances of the case, for any 9 sum above the amount found as actual damages, up to a trebling
10 of such amount. If the court shall find that the amount of the 11 recovery based on profits is either inadequate or excessive,
12 the court may in its discretion enter judgment for such sum as 13 the court shall find to be just, according to the 14 circumstances of the case. Such sum in either of the above
15 circumstances shall constitute compensation and not a penalty.

16 "(c) The court, in its discretion, may award
17 reasonable attorney fees as follows:

18 "(1) To a prevailing owner in such cases when the 19 court finds the defendant willfully intended infringement or 20 dilution.

21 "(2) To a prevailing defendant in such cases as the 22 Alabama Litigation Accountability Act provides.

23 ~~(b)~~(d) The enumeration of any right or remedy in 24 this article shall not affect a ~~registrant's~~ owner's right to 25 prosecute under any penal law of this state."

26 Section 2. This act shall become effective January 27 1, 2011.
