8 HONORING AND COMMENDING THE LATE CARL ATWOOD
9 ELLIOTT.

11 WHEREAS, it is with great pride and honor that we 12 celebrate the life and legacy of the late Carl Atwood Elliott;
13 and

14 WHEREAS, Carl Atwood Elliott was a United States
15 Congressman from the old 7th District of Alabama; he was 16 elected to eight consecutive terms, having served from 1949 to 17 1965; and

18 WHEREAS, born in rural Franklin County in the hills
19 of northwest Alabama, he was a graduate of Vina High School;
20 and

21 WHEREAS, Mr. Elliott received his Bachelor's Degree
22 and his Juris Doctorate from The University of Alabama; and

23 WHEREAS, as an attorney in Jasper, Mr. Elliott spent 24 most of his time representing coal miners and their families, 25 foreshadowing his long political career of fighting for 26 Alabama's poorest, most disadvantaged people; he proudly

1 served his country in the United States Army from 1942 to
2 1944; and

3 WHEREAS, in 1956, Carl Elliott authored the Library
4 Services Act, which brought mobile libraries (Bookmobiles) and 5 continuing library service to millions of rural Americans; in 6 1958, he co-authored the National Defense Education Act, which 7 has enabled more than 30 million college students nationwide
8 to obtain student loans; and

9 WHEREAS, in addition to his law practice, Mr.
10 Elliott wrote books about local history, producing columns and 11 book reviews for area newspapers, and publishing books by 12 local authors; his books include five volumes of Annals of 13 Northwest Alabama, a history of Red Bay, Alabama, and seven 14 volumes on the history of area coal miners; and

15 WHEREAS, in 1990, Carl Elliott became the first 16 recipient of the John F. Kennedy Profiles in Courage Award in 17 recognition of his outstanding achievements; he was honored to 18 travel to Boston, Massachusetts, to accept the award from 19 United States Senator Edward M. Kennedy; his autobiography,
20 The Cost of Courage: The Journey of An American Congressman, 21 published in 1992, has been reprinted by The University of 22 Alabama Press; and

23 WHEREAS, Representative Johnny Mack Morrow reflects
24 on the life Carl Elliott with the tribute, "My father, Grover 25 Morrow, was a boyhood friend of Carl Elliott. When Carl was 26 elected to Congress, I was 6 years old. Carl would often visit
27 our home and talk politics with my father while he was a

1 congressman. I would sit for long periods of time and listen
2 to these discussions. The base of my political ideology today
3 was definitely built and based upon these discussions between 4 my father and Carl. Carl lived his life helping the underdog
5 or assisting the 'least of these!'; now therefore,

6 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 7 THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That in tremendous gratitude, we 8 commend and honor the life and legacy of Carl Atwood Elliott.
