9 conditioned that the owner of such instrument will promptly

2 said term of five years, the owner of the instrument offered
3 for record shall execute such further bond as may be required
4 by the Department of Revenue covering the succeeding term of 5 five years, and thereafter every term of five years, in the 6 same manner so long as any of the indebtedness authorized to 7 be incurred by such instrument has not been incurred with like

18 tax upon the amount so certified and the recording fees of the 19 probate judge, shall accept the instrument for record. During

1 without the payment of the mortgage tax and the fact of such 2 prior payment shall be endorsed on the deed.

3 "(4) The privilege taxes herein imposed shall not be 4 required on or for the filing of any such instrument,

6 payment of the tax levied under this section, the probate
7 judge shall collect the tax levied by this section upon the 8 then unpaid balance of the secured debt together with the fee

18 the value of the whole property and of that part of it located 19 within this state, and to fix and determine the amount of the 20 indebtedness upon which the tax shall be paid, and the 21 department shall thereupon ascertain such valuation and fix
22 and determine such indebtedness and shall order the probate
23 judge to refund the excess of privilege tax collected , and 24 the probate judge shall comply with such order; and the tax

17 "(11) Any probate judge who fails to keep the 18 abstract of mortgages or other instruments intended to secure 19 the payment of moneys which are filed in his or her office for 20 filing or for record, as he or she is required by law to keep,
21 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall
