8	SYNOPSIS:	Under existing law, former public officials
9		and public employees are prohibited from serving as
10		a lobbyist or otherwise representing clients before
11		the governmental body for which he or she had
12		served or worked for a period of two years after
13		leaving office or employment.
14		This bill would provide that a former public
15		employee may resume employment with that former
16		employer during the two-year cooling off period.
17		This bill would also provide that a former
18		public employee may accept employment with another
19		public employer and may represent the interests of
20		that new public employer before his or her former
21		public employer during the two-year cooling off
22		period.
23
24		A BILL
25		TO BE ENTITLED
26		AN ACT
27

Relating to ethics; to add Section 36-25-13.1 to the Code of Alabama 1975; to provide that, for a period of two years after leaving public office or employment, a former public employee may resume employment with his or her former employer, and a former public official or employee may represent a public employer before the governmental body where the official or employee formerly served or worked.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1. Section 36-25-13.1 is added to the Code of Alabama 1975, to read as follows:

§36-25-13.1.

Notwithstanding Section 36-25-13, before the expiration of the two-year period, both of the following may occur:

- (1) A former public employee may resume employment with his or her former employer, unless otherwise restricted or prohibited by law.
- (2) A former public employee may accept employment with another public employer and may represent the interests of that new public employer before his or her former public employer.

Section 2. This act shall become effective on the first day of the third month following its passage and approval by the Governor, or its otherwise becoming law.
