8	SYNOPSIS:	Under existing law, a person is guilty of a
9		Class A misdemeanor if he or she attempts to elude
10		a law enforcement officer, unless he or she causes
11		physical injury to an innocent bystander or third
12		party, in which case it is a Class C felony.
13		This bill would also apply the enhanced
14		felony penalty to defendants who cause death or
15		serious physical injury to a law enforcement
16		officer in pursuit of a person attempting to elude
17		the officer.
18		This bill would apply the enhanced felony
19		penalty only if serious physical injuries are
20		caused to innocent bystanders, third parties, or a
21		law enforcement officer.
22		Amendment 621 of the Constitution of Alabama
23		of 1901, now appearing as Section 111.05 of the 24		Official Recompilation of the Constitution of
25		Alabama of 1901, as amended, prohibits a general
26		law whose purpose or effect would be to require a

 $\hbox{new or increased expenditure of local funds from}\$

1 becoming effective with regard to a local 2 governmental entity without enactment by a 2/3 vote unless: it comes within one of a number of 3 specified exceptions; it is approved by the affected entity; or the Legislature appropriates funds, or provides a local source of revenue, to 7 the entity for the purpose.

> The purpose or effect of this bill would be to require a new or increased expenditure of local funds within the meaning of the amendment. However, the bill does not require approval of a local governmental entity or enactment by a 2/3 vote to become effective because it comes within one of the specified exceptions contained in the amendment.

To amend Section 13A-10-52, Code of Alabama 1975, to apply an enhanced felony penalty to defendants who cause death or serious physical injury to a law enforcement officer in pursuit of a person attempting to elude an officer; and in connection therewith would have as its purpose or effect the requirement of a new or increased expenditure of local funds within the meaning of Amendment 621 of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, now appearing as Section 111.05 of the

- 1 Official Recompilation of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901,
- 2 as amended.
- 3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:
- 4 Section 1. Section 13A-10-52, Code of Alabama 1975,
- is amended to read as follows:
- 6 "$13A-10-52.
- 7 "(a) It shall be unlawful for a person to
- 8 intentionally flee by any means from anyone the person knows
- 9 to be a law enforcement officer if the person knows the
- officer is attempting to arrest the person.
- "(b) It shall be unlawful for a person while
- operating a motor vehicle on a street, road, alley, or highway
- in this state, to intentionally flee or attempt to elude a law
- 14 enforcement officer after having received a signal from the
- officer to bring the vehicle to a stop.
- "(c) A violation of subsection (a) or (b) is a Class
- 17 A misdemeanor unless the flight or attempt to elude causes an
- actual death or serious physical injury to the pursuing law
- 19 enforcement officer, an innocent bystanders bystander, or any
- 20 other third parties party, in which case the violation shall
- 21 be a Class C felony. In addition, the court shall order the
- 22 suspension of the driver's license of the defendant for a
- 23 period of not less than six months nor more than two years."
- 24 Section 2. Although this bill would have as its
- 25 purpose or effect the requirement of a new or increased
- expenditure of local funds, the bill is excluded from further
- 27 requirements and application under Amendment 621, now appearing as Section 111.05 of the Official Recompilation of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, as amended, because the bill defines a new crime or amends the definition of an existing crime.

Section 3. This act shall become effective on the first day of the third month following its passage and approval by the Governor, or its otherwise becoming law.
