8	SYNOPSIS:	Existing law authorizes the formation of
9		limited liability companies and the filing of
10		documentation of such formation with the Secretary
11		of State.
12		This bill would provide further for the
13		formation of limited liability companies by
14		replacing the current limited liability company law
15		with an updated Uniform Alabama Limited Liability
16		Company Law.
17		This bill would clarify that a limited
18		liability agreement is a contractual agreement
19		between the parties to the agreement and may be
20		modified to suit the needs of the parties.
21		This bill would provide that certain
22		obligations of the contractual agreement, such as
23		the obligation of good faith and fair dealing,
24		could not be modified.
25		This bill would require a limited liability
26		company to file with the Secretary of State certain
27		documents providing for the formation, dissolution, merger, or conversion of the company as a means of providing notice to third parties.

This bill would provide that the right of a person to direct and oversee the activities and affairs of the limited liability company would be determined by the limited liability company agreement, and, where the agreement is silent, by the members of the company.

This bill would provide that a limited liability company may establish in its certificate of formation and its limited liability company agreement, one or more designated series of assets with which certain members may be associated and would provide that the assets of one series could not be used to satisfy the obligations of another series.

24	Article 4
25	RELATIONS OF MEMBERS TO EACH OTHER AND TO THE
26	LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY
27	$10A-5A-4.01. Admission of members.

- (a) The initial member or members of a limited liability company are admitted as a member or members upon the formation of the limited liability company.
 - (b) After formation of a limited liability company, a person is admitted as a member of the limited liability company:
- 7 (1) as provided in the limited liability company 8 agreement;

- (2) as the result of a transaction effective under Article 10;
 - (3) with the consent of all the members; or
 - (4) if, within 90 consecutive days after the occurrence of the dissociation of the last remaining member:
 - (A) all holders of the transferable interest last transferred by the last person to have been a member consent to the designation of a person to be admitted as a member; and
 - (B) the designated person consents to be admitted as a member effective as of the date the last person to have been a member ceased to be a member.
 - (c) A person may be admitted as a member without acquiring a transferable interest and without making or being obligated to make a contribution to the limited liability company. A person may be admitted as the sole member without acquiring a transferable interest and without making or being obligated to make a contribution to the limited liability company.
- §10A-5A-4.02. Limited liability company property.

A member has no interest in any specific property of a limited liability company or a series thereof.

3 $10A-5A-4.03. Contribution.

A contribution by a member may be made to a limited liability company as agreed upon by the members. A contribution by a member associated with a series may be made to that series as agreed upon by the members associated with that series.

$10A-5A-4.04. Liability for contribution.

- (a) A member's obligation to make a contribution to a limited liability company, or a series thereof, is not excused by the member's death, disability, or other inability to perform personally. If a member does not make a contribution required by an enforceable promise, the member or the member's estate is obligated, at the election of the limited liability company, or series thereof, to contribute money equal to the value of the portion of the contribution that has not been made. The foregoing election shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights, including the right to specific performance, that the limited liability company, or series thereof, may have under the limited liability company agreement or applicable law.
- (b) (1) The obligation of a member to make a contribution to a limited liability company may be compromised only by consent of all the members. A conditional obligation of a member to make a contribution to a limited liability company may not be enforced unless the conditions of the obligation have been satisfied or waived as to or by that member. Conditional obligations include contributions payable upon a discretionary call of a limited liability company before the time the call occurs.

- (2) The obligation of a member associated with a series to make a contribution to the series may be compromised only by consent of all the members associated with that series. A conditional obligation of a member to make a contribution to a series may not be enforced unless the conditions of the obligation have been satisfied or waived as to or by that member. Conditional obligations include contributions payable upon a discretionary call of that series before the time the call occurs.
 - (3) Subsection (b) (1) shall not apply to a member's obligation to make a contribution to a series of a limited liability company.
 - (c) A promise by a member to make a contribution to a limited liability company, or a series thereof, is not enforceable unless set forth in a writing signed by the member.
- 21 §10A-5A-4.05. Sharing of and right to distributions 22 before dissolution.
 - (a) (1) All members shall share equally in any distributions made by a limited liability company before its dissolution and winding up.
 - (2) A member has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company as provided in the limited liability company agreement. A decision to make a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company is a decision in the ordinary course of activities and affairs of the limited liability company. A member's dissociation does not entitle the dissociated member to a distribution.

- (3) A member does not have a right to demand and receive a distribution from a limited liability company in any form other than money. Except as otherwise provided in Section 10A-5A-7.06(c), a limited liability company may distribute an asset in kind if each member receives a percentage of the asset in proportion to the member's share of distributions.
- (4) If a member becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the member has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the limited liability company with respect to the distribution.
- (b) (1) All members associated with a series shall share equally in any distributions made by the series before its dissolution and winding up.
- (2) A member associated with a series has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of the series as provided in the limited liability company agreement. A decision of the series to make a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of the series is a decision in the ordinary course of activities and affairs of the series. A member's dissociation from a series with which the member is associated does not entitle the dissociated member to a distribution from the series.

- (3) A member associated with a series does not have a right to demand and receive a distribution from the series in any form other than money. Except as otherwise provided in Section 10A-5A-11.14(c), a series may distribute an asset in kind if each member associated with the series receives a percentage of the asset in proportion to the member's share of distributions from the series.
- (4) If a member associated with a series becomes entitled to receive a distribution from the series, the member has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the series with respect to the distribution.
- (c) Subsection (a) shall not apply to a distribution made by a series.
 - §10A-5A-4.06. Limitation on distributions and liability for improper distributions.
 - (a) (1) A limited liability company shall not make a distribution to a member to the extent that at the time of the distribution, after giving effect to the distribution, all liabilities of the limited liability company, other than liabilities to members on account of their transferable interests and liabilities for which the recourse of creditors is limited to specific property of the limited liability company, exceed the fair value of the assets of the limited liability company, except that the fair value of the property that is subject to a liability for which recourse of creditors

- is limited shall be included in the assets of the limited liability company only to the extent that the fair value of the property exceeds that liability.
- (2) A member who receives a distribution in violation of subsection (a)(1) or the limited liability 5 6 company agreement, and who knew at the time of the 7 distribution that the distribution violated subsection (a) (1) or the limited liability company agreement, shall be liable to 8 the limited liability company for the amount of the 9 10 distribution. A member who receives a distribution in violation of subsection (a)(1) or the limited liability 11 12 company agreement, and who did not know at the time of the distribution that the distribution violated subsection (a) (1) 13 14 or the limited liability company agreement, shall not be 15 liable for the amount of the distribution.

(2) A member associated with a series who receives a distribution in violation of paragraph (1) or the limited liability company agreement, and who knew at the time of the distribution that the distribution violated paragraph (1) or the limited liability company agreement, shall be liable to that series for the amount of the distribution. A member associated with a series who receives a distribution in violation of paragraph (1) or the limited liability company agreement, and who did not know at the time of the distribution that the distribution violated paragraph (1) or the limited liability company agreement, shall not be liable for the amount of the distribution.

17	TRANSFERABLE INTERESTS AND RIGHTS OF TRANSFEREES AND
18	CREDITORS
19	$10A-5A-5.01. Member's transferable interest.

- 24 (a) A transfer, in whole or in part, of a
- 25 transferable interest:
- 26 (1) is permissible;

- 1 (2) (A) does not by itself cause a member to cease to 2 be a member of the limited liability company; and
- 3 (B) does not by itself cause a member to cease to be 4 associated with a series of the limited liability company;
 - (3) does not by itself cause a dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company, or a series thereof; and

- 8 (4) subject to Section 10A-5A-5.04, does not entitle 9 the transferee to:
 - (A) participate in the direction or oversight of the activities and affairs of the limited liability company, or a series thereof; or
 - (B) have access to records or other information concerning the activities and affairs of the limited liability company, or a series thereof.
 - (b) A transferee has the right to receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled.
 - (c) A transferable interest may be evidenced by a certificate of transferable interest issued by the limited liability company, or a series thereof. A limited liability company agreement may provide for the transfer of the transferable interest represented by the certificate and make other provisions with respect to the certificate. No certificate of transferable interest shall be issued in bearer form.

1 (d) A limited liability company, or a series
2 thereof, need not give effect to a transferee's rights under
3 this section until the limited liability company, or a series
4 thereof, has notice of the transfer.

- (e) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 10A-5A-6.02(d)(2), 10A-5A-6.02(k), and 10A-5A-6.02(l) when a member transfers a transferable interest, the transferor retains the rights of a member other than the right to distributions transferred and retains all duties and obligations of a member.
- (f) When a member transfers a transferable interest to a person that is admitted as a member with respect to the transferred interest, the transferee is liable for the member's obligations under Sections 10A-5A-4.04, 10A-5A-4.06(a)(2), and 10A-5A-4.06(b)(2) to the extent that the obligations are known to the transferee when the transferee voluntarily accepts admission as a member.

§10A-5A-5.03. Charging order.

(a) On application to a court of competent jurisdiction by any judgment creditor of a member or transferee, the court may charge the transferable interest of the judgment debtor with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment with interest. judgment debtor would otherwise be entitled in respect of the transferable interest.

(b) A limited liability company, after being served with a charging order and its terms, shall be entitled to pay or deposit any distribution or distributions to which the judgment debtor would otherwise be entitled in respect of the charged transferable interest into the hands of the clerk of the court so issuing the charging order, and the payment or deposit shall discharge the limited liability company and the judgment debtor from liability for the amount so paid or deposited and any interest that might accrue thereon. 11	series.
12	Notwithstanding Sections 10A-1-9.01 and 10A-1-9.21:

24	(3) provide a mailing address to which the claim is

(d) For purposes of this section, "known claim" or 16 17 "claim" includes unliquidated claims, but does not include a contingent liability that has not matured so that there is no 18 immediate right to bring suit or a claim based on an event 19 occurring after the effective date of dissolution. 20 21 (e) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to 22
 - extend any otherwise applicable statute of limitations.
- 23 $10A-5A-11.13. Other claims against dissolved 24 series.
- 25 Notwithstanding Sections 10A-1-9.01 and 10A-1-9.22:

- (2) describe the information that must be included in a claim and provide a mailing address to which the claim is to be sent; and
- (3) state that if not sooner barred, a claim against the dissolved series will be barred unless a proceeding to enforce the claim is commenced within two years after the publication of the notice.
- (c) If a dissolved series publishes a newspaper notice in accordance with subsection (b), unless sooner barred by any other statute limiting actions, the claim of each of the following claimants is barred unless the claimant commences a proceeding to enforce the claim against the dissolved series within two years after the publication date of the newspaper notice:
- (1) a claimant who was not given notice under Section 10A-5A-11.12 (b);
- (2) a claimant whose claim was timely sent to the dissolved series but not acted on by the dissolved series; and

3 on an event occurring after the effective date of the 4 dissolution of the series.

- (d) A claim that is not barred under this section, any other statute limiting actions, or Section 10A-5A-11.12 may be enforced:
- (1) against a dissolved series, to the extent of its undistributed assets associated with the series; and
- (2) except as provided in subsection (h), if the assets of a dissolved series have been distributed after dissolution, against the person or persons owning the transferable interests associated with the series to the extent of that person's proportionate share of the claim or of the assets of the series distributed to that person after dissolution, whichever is less, but a person's total liability for all claims under this subsection (d) may not exceed the total amount of assets of the series distributed to that person after dissolution of the series.
- (e) A dissolved series that published a notice under this section may file an application with the circuit court in the county in which the limited liability company's principal place of business office is located and if the limited liability company does not have a principal place of business within this state then the circuit court for the county in which the limited liability company's most recent registered office is located, for a determination of the amount and form of security to be provided for payment of claims that are contingent or have not been made known to the dissolved series or that are based on an event occurring after the effective date of the dissolution of the series but that, based on the facts known to the dissolved series, are reasonably estimated to arise after the effective date of the dissolution of the series. Provision need not be made for any claim that is or is reasonably anticipated to be barred under subsection (c).

- (f) Within 10 days after the filing of the application provided for in subsection (e), notice of the proceeding shall be given by the dissolved series to each potential claimant as described in subsection (e).
- (g) The circuit court under subsection (e) may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent all claimants whose identities are unknown in any proceeding brought under this section. The reasonable fees and expenses of the guardian, including all reasonable expert witness fees, shall be paid by the dissolved series.
- (h) Provision by the dissolved series for security in the amount and the form ordered by the circuit court under subsection (e) shall satisfy the dissolved series' obligation with respect to claims that are contingent, have not been made known to the dissolved series or are based on an event occurring after the effective date of the dissolution of the series, and those claims may not be enforced against a person owning a transferable interest to whom assets have been - distributed by the dissolved series after the effective date of the dissolution of the series.

- 3 (i) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to 4 extend any otherwise applicable statute of limitations.

(j) If a claim has been satisfied, disposed of, or barred under Section 10A-5A-11.12, this Section 10A-5A-11.13 or other law, the person or persons designated to wind up the affairs of a limited liability company, and the owners of the transferable interests receiving assets from the limited liability company, shall not be liable for that claim.

$10A-5A-11.14. Application of assets in winding up series' activities and affairs.

Notwithstanding Section 10A-1-9.12, upon the winding up of a series, the assets of the series shall be applied as follows:

- (a) Payment, or adequate provision for payment, shall be made to creditors of the series, including, to the extent permitted by law, members who are associated with the series and who are also creditors of the series, in satisfaction of liabilities of the series.
- (b) After a series complies with subsection (a), any surplus must be distributed:
- (1) first, to each person owning a transferable interest associated with that series that reflects contributions made on account of that transferable interest and not previously returned, an amount equal to the value of the unreturned contributions; and

- 1 (2) then to each person owning a transferable
 2 interest associated with that series in the proportions in 3 which the owners of transferable interests associated with 4 that series share in distributions prior to the dissolution of 5 the series.
 - (c) If the series does not have sufficient surplus to comply with subsection (b)(1), any surplus must be distributed among the owners of transferable interests associated with that series in proportion to the value of their respective unreturned contributions.

- 11 §10A-5A-11.15. Reinstatement after dissolution of a series.
 - Notwithstanding Sections 10A-1-9.31 and 10A-1-9.32, a series that has been dissolved may be reinstated upon compliance with the following conditions:
 - (a) the consent shall have been obtained from the members or other persons associated with the series entitled to consent at the time that is:
 - (1) required for reinstatement of the series under the limited liability company agreement; or
 - (2) if the limited liability company agreement does not state the consent required for reinstatement, sufficient for dissolution of the series under the limited liability company agreement; or
 - (3) if the limited liability company agreement neither states the consent required for reinstatement nor for

- dissolution, sufficient for dissolution of the series under this chapter;
 - (b) in the case of a written objection to reinstatement having been delivered to the series before or at the time of the consent required by subsection (a) by the members or other persons having authority under the limited liability company agreement to bring about or prevent dissolution of the series, those members or persons withdrawing that written objection effective at the time of the consent required by subsection (a); and
 - (c) In the case of a series dissolved in a judicial proceeding initiated by one or more of the members associated with the series, the consent of each of those members shall have been obtained and shall be included in the consent required by subsection (a) (1).

$10A-5A-11.16. Effect of reinstatement.

- (a) Subject to subsection (b), upon reinstatement, a series shall be deemed for all purposes to have continued its activities and affairs as if dissolution had never occurred; each right inuring to, and each debt, obligation, and liability incurred by, the series after the dissolution shall be determined as if the dissolution had never occurred.
- (b) The rights of persons acting in reliance on the dissolution of the series before those persons had notice of the reinstatement shall not be adversely affected by the reinstatement.
