8	SYNOPSIS:	Under existing law, deferred presentment
9		transactions, commonly referred to as payday loans,
10		are regulated by the State Banking Department
11		pursuant to the Deferred Presentment Services Act.
12		This bill would add to this act the term
13		"Principal Balance" and define the term.
14		This bill would provide that a person who is
15		not exempted from the Deferred Presentment Services
16		Act would be subject to the provisions of this act.
17		This bill would provide that any loan
18		contract entered into in violation of the act would
19		be void.
20		This bill would impose limits on the amount
21		of interest that could be charged for a loan.
22		This bill would prohibit a licensee from
23		extending a loan to a customer who has an
24		outstanding deferred presentment transaction with a
25		value of $500 or more, who has six or more deferred
26		presentment transactions from all licensees in any
27		12-month period, an extended repayment with a

1	licensee until 14 days after the plan is paid in
2	full, or the customer or their spouse or dependent
3	is a member of the military.
4	This bill would extend the time in which
5	payment of a check may be deferred.
6	This bill would provide that a licensee may
7	not use or threaten force or violence against a
8	customer and limit the threatening of criminal
9	prosecution against a customer.
10	This bill would provide that the period of
11	the deferred presentment transaction would not
12	begin until the customer receives the funds from
13	the licensee.
14	This bill would require licensees to use a
15	database designated by the supervisor to ensure
16	that a customer does not have any deferred
17	presentment transaction over $500.
18	This bill would require each licensee to
19	report within a specified time certain information
20	to the supervisor.

22	A BILL
23	TO BE ENTITLED
24	AN ACT
25
26	To amend Sections 5-18A-2, 5-18A-12, 5-18A-13, and

5--18A--16 of the Code of Alabama 1975, relating to deferred

1 presentment transactions; to add the term "Principal Balance" 2 and define the term; to provide that a person who is not exempted from the Deferred Presentment Services Act would be 3 subject to the provisions of this act; to provide that any loan contract entered into in violation of the act would be void; to impose limits on the amount of interest that could be 6 7 charged for a loan; to prohibit a licensee from extending a loan to a customer who has an outstanding deferred presentment transaction with a value of $500 or more, who has six or more deferred presentment transactions from all licensees in any 11 12-month period, an extended repayment with a licensee until 12 14 days after the plan is paid in full, or the customer or 13 their spouse or dependent is a member of the military; to extend the time in which payment of a check may be deferred; 15 to provide that a licensee may not use or threaten force or violence against a customer and limit the threatening of 17 criminal prosecution against a customer; to provide that the period of the deferred presentment transaction would not begin until the customer receives the funds from the licensee; to 19 20 require licensees to use a database designated by the 21 supervisor to ensure that a customer does not have any 22 deferred presentment transaction over $500; and to require 23 each licensee to report with a specified time certain information to the supervisor.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1. Sections 5-18A-2, 5-18A-12, 5-18A-13, and 5-18A-16 of the Code of Alabama 1975, are amended to follows:

1	"$5-18A-2.
2	"As used in this chapter, the following terms shall
3	have the following meanings:
4	"(1) CHECK. A debit authorization or a check signed
5	by the maker and made payable to a person licensed under this
6	chapter.
7	"(2) CONTINUOUS TRANSACTION. To extend a deferred
8	presentment transaction with the same account without
9	redemption in full with cash or guaranteed funds.
10	" (3) (2) DEFERRED PRESENTMENT SERVICES. A
11	transaction pursuant to a written agreement involving the
12	following combination of activities in exchange for a fee:
13	"a. Accepting a check or authorization to debit a
14	checking account and, in connection with that acceptance,
15	advancing funds to the checking account holder.
16	"b. Holding the check or authorization to debit
17	checking account for a period of time prior to payment or
18	deposit.
19	" $\frac{(4)}{(3)}$ DEPARTMENT. The State Banking Department.
20	" $\frac{(5)}{(4)}$ LICENSEE. A person licensed to provide
21	deferred presentment services pursuant to this chapter.
22	" $\frac{(6)}{(5)}$ PERSON. An individual, group of
23	individuals, partnership, association, corporation, or any
24	other business unit or legal entity.
25	" $\frac{(7)}{(6)}$ ROLLOVER. Any deferred presentment
26	transaction where the transaction is not paid in full and the

- licensee agrees to allow the customer to pay the fee only for a new deferred presentment transaction.
 - "(7) PRINCIPAL BALANCE. The balance due and owed exclusive of any interest, service charges, or other loan-related charges.
 - "(8) SUPERVISOR. The Supervisor of the Bureau of Loans or his or her designee.

8 "$5-18A-3.

- "(a) On or after January 1, 2004, no person shall engage, in whole or in part, through any method, including but not limited to, mail, telephone, Internet, or in person, in the business of deferred presentment services without having first obtained a license from the supervisor. A separate license shall be required for each location from which the business is conducted.
- "(b) Trust companies, life insurance companies, and federally constituted agencies shall be exempt from licensing under this chapter. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this chapter, this chapter shall not apply to any of the following entities, and each of these entities shall be exempt from this chapter: Banks, credit unions, savings associations, savings banks, and thrift institutions organized pursuant to the laws of this state or any other state or the laws of the United States and any parent of any of the foregoing entities.
- "(c) This chapter shall have no application to persons who do not engage in deferred presentment services.

1	"(d) A licensee or licensee's agent, not expressly
2	exempted in subsection (b), shall not engage in any device or
3	subterfuge intended to evade the requirements of this chapter
4	through any method including, but not limited to, in-person,
5	mail, telephone, Internet or any electronic means, including:
6	"(1) Offering, making, or assisting a borrower to
7	obtain a loan or brokering or acting as an agent for a third
8	party in such a transaction, regardless of whether approval,
9	acceptance or ratification is necessary to create a legal

"(2) Disquising a short-term consumer loan as a revolving line of credit, or making or assisting a borrower to obtain a revolving line of credit for the purpose of avoiding the requirements of this chapter.

"(e) Any loan contract entered into while in violation of this section shall be void, and the lender shall have no right to collect, receive, or retain any principal, interest, or charges whatsoever. Additionally, a violation of any provision of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) nor less than one hundred dollars ($100), or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

obligation for the third party.

"(a) Subject to the following subsections, every licensee under this chapter may charge and collect a maximum fee on any deferred presentment transaction not to exceed 17.5

percent of the amount advanced an annual percentage rate (APR) of 36 percent. The rate charged on the outstanding balance after maturity must not be greater than the rate charged during the loan term. As specified by Section 5-18A-13(a)(1), the . The maximum aggregate amount that may be advanced to a borrower, by any and all licensees, in any deferred presentment transaction is five hundred dollars ($500). To ensure that this five hundred dollars ($500) cap is not violated, the licensee shall use the common database, as explained in Section 5-18A-13 (p) and (q).

"(b) Each licensee may renew or extend a deferred presentment transaction with the same customer no more than one additional time at this fee for a maximum of two continuous transactions. After two continuous transactions with the customer, the licensee shall not enter into a new deferred presentment transaction with that same customer until the next business day after the transaction amount is repaid in full. After the customer has redeemed the check in full with cash or quaranteed funds, the licensee has the same authority as any other licensee to enter into another agreement for deferred presentment services with the customer on another check. No licensee shall make, and no borrower shall receive, a loan under this chapter that would cause the borrower to have more than six loans in a 12-month period, including rollover or refinancing of an existing loan. Any loan made or collected in violation of this subsection is void, and the licensee shall have no right to collect, receive, or retain any principle, interest, fees, or other charges.

"(c) After the initial loan period and one rollover with the same customer, the full outstanding amount of the loan, including, but not limited to, held check or debt authorization, shall become due. If the customer is unable to repay the outstanding balance in full, the licensee may shall offer the customer an extended repayment option of four equal monthly installments of the remaining balance. The licensee shall not commence any civil action to collect on a transaction in default until written notice has been sent notifying the customer of his or her rights default of the extended repayment plan option. The notice shall be provided in a separate document from the deferred presentment transaction agreement, and shall include at least the following statement, with the first sentence below in at least 16-point bold type and the remainder in at least 12-point bold type, in a separate document accompanying the parties' written agreement: "If you are unable to pay the full amount owed, then you may repay by means of an extended repayment plan (ERP). If you elect to exercise your ERP rights, then you must, before your loan's due date, pay all accrued finance charges, request an ERP and sign an amendment to this agreement that sets out the ERP terms. The ERP terms will allow you, at no cost, to repay this transaction in four substantially equal installments over an aggregate term of 90 days. The lender may secure each ERP installment with a check written by you. You may prepay an ERP in full at any time without penalty. If you fail to pay the ERP when due, then the ERP is terminated and the lender may immediately accelerate and collect the unpaid transaction balance." If the customer fails to exercise his or her rights within 15 days of the notice, the licensee may commence action to collect on a transaction in default.

"(d) If there are insufficient funds to pay a check on the date of presentment, the licensee may charge a fee authorized in Section 8-8-15; however, only one such fee may be collected with respect to any particular transaction after actual presentment to the financial institution or drawee obligated to pay the instrument. No other fees or charges of any kind may be charged or collected from customers except those authorized herein. No person shall use any device, subterfuge, or pretense whatsoever, including, but not limited to, catalog sales, discount vouchers, Internet instant-rebate programs, phone card clubs, or any agreement, including agreements with affiliated persons, with the intent to obtain greater charges than would otherwise be authorized by this chapter.

"$5-18A-13.

"(a) A licensee may not knowingly enter into a deferred presentment transaction with a customer in the following circumstances: that has outstanding deferred

1	presentment transactions from any lender at any location that
2	exceeds five hundred dollars ($500) for the term of the loan.
3	"(1) If that customer has an outstanding deferred
4	presentment transaction or transactions from any lender at any
5	location that, with an aggregate original principal value of
6	five hundred dollars ($500) or more;
7	"(2) If engaging in that deferred deposit
8	transaction would result in a customer receiving more than six
9	deferred presentment transactions from all licensees in any
10	12-month period;
11	"(3) If that customer is in an extended repayment
12	plan with any licensee until 14 days after the plan is paid in 13	full; or
14	"(4) If that customer is a member of the military
15	services of the United States, their spouse or dependent,
16	unless in compliance with the Military Lending Act of 2007.
17	"(b) Before a licensee shall present for payment or
18	deposit a check or debit authorization accepted by the
19	licensee, the check shall be endorsed with the actual name
20	under which the licensee is doing business.
21	"(c) Any agreement for a deferred presentment
22	transaction shall be in writing and signed by the checking
23	account holder. The customer in a deferred presentment
24	contract shall have the right to redeem the check or debit
25	authorization from the licensee before the agreed date of 26	deposit upon payment to the licensee of the amount of the
27	contract. A licensee shall not defer presentment of any personal check or debit authorization for less than 10 days nor more than 31 30 calendar days after the date of the contract.

- "(d) The licensee shall notify the district attorney for the circuit in which the check was received within five business days after being advised by the payer financial institution that a check or draft has been altered, forged, stolen, obtained through fraudulent or illegal means, negotiated without proper legal authority, or represents the proceeds of illegal activity. If a check or draft is returned to the licensee by the payer financial institution for any of these reasons, the licensee shall not release the check, draft, or money order without the consent of the district attorney or other investigating law enforcement authority.
- "(e) A licensee shall comply with all provisions of state and federal law regarding cash transactions and cash transaction reporting.
- "(f) A licensee shall provide each prospective customer, before consummation of the deferred presentment agreement, with a written explanation in clear, understandable language of the fees to be charged by the licensee and the date on which the check or debit authorization may be deposited or presented by the licensee. All fees associated with deferred presentment transactions shall be disclosed as finance charges as required by the Federal Truth-in-Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. §1605, its regulations, 12 C.F.R. Part 226, and Official Staff Commentary as adopted by the Federal Reserve

Board. The supervisor may promulgate rules establishing additional requirements in order to assure complete and accurate disclosures. The customer, prior to entering into a deferred presentment transaction, shall receive and acknowledge an accurate and complete notification and disclosure of the itemized and total amounts of all fees and other costs that will or potentially could be imposed as a result of such agreement. This subsection shall not create any inference that a particular method of disclosure was required prior to June 20, 2003. All customers will be notified in clear and conspicuous language that the deferred presentment check or debit authorization after one rollover, will be subject to terms and conditions described in subsection (c) of Section 5-18A-12. The terms and conditions of the transaction shall be provided in the notification.

"(g) A licensee shall issue a copy of the written agreement to each person for whom a licensee defers deposit of a check or debit authorization. The written agreement shall include the information described in subsection (f) and the extended repayment program described in subsection (c) of Section 5-18A-12.

"(h) If a check is returned to the licensee from a payer financial institution due to insufficient funds or a closed account, the licensee shall have the right to all civil remedies allowed by law, except as provided for in Section 5-18A-12, to collect the check and may recover court costs and a reasonable attorney's fee. The attorney's fee may not exceed 15 percent of the face amount of the check or debit authorization. No individual who issues a personal check or authorizes a debit for his or her checking account to a licensee for the purpose of a deferred presentment transaction under this chapter shall be convicted pursuant to Section 13A-9-13.1, if the check or debit authorization is returned due to insufficient funds. Checks or debit authorizations returned to the licensee due to knowingly authorized by a customer using a closed account may be collected pursuant to Section 13A-9-13.1.

- "(i) No licensee may alter or delete the date on any check accepted by the licensee. No licensee may accept an undated check or debit authorization or a check or debit authorization dated on a date other than the date on which the licensee accepts the check or debit authorization.
- "(j) No licensee shall engage in unfair or deceptive acts, practices, or advertising in the conduct of the licensed business.
- "(k) No licensee shall require a customer to provide security for the transaction or require the customer to provide a guaranty from another person.
- "(1) No licensee shall use or threaten force or violence against any customer. Nor may any licensee threaten criminal prosecution, unless the customer's actions are in clear violation of a criminal statute pursuant to Section 13A-9-13.1. No licensee shall trespass on a customer's property, use printed materials that resemble legal process,

1 make collection attempts at unreasonable hours of the night,
2 or deny the customer use of personal property not secured by 3 the loan.

"(1) (m) Each licensee shall pay all proceeds for any deferred presentment transaction in cash and directly to the customer. Each licensee may pay all proceeds for a deferred presentment transaction in cash directly to the customer or electronic funds transfer directly to the customer or customer's account. The period of the deferred presentment transaction shall not begin until the funds are received by the customer. There shall be no additional charge related to the payment of the proceeds of any deferred presentment transaction.

"(m) (n) Every licensee shall conspicuously and continuously display a schedule of all fees, charges, and penalties for all services provided by the licensee. The schedule of fees shall contain the following statement in all capital letters and in 12-point type or larger immediately above the space for the borrower's signature: NOTICE: FEES FOR DEFERRED PRESENTMENT TRANSACTIONS MAY BE SIGNIFICANTLY HIGHER THAN FOR OTHER TYPES OF LOANS.

"(n) (o) A deferred presentment provider shall not redeem, extend, or otherwise consolidate a deferred deposit agreement with the proceeds of another deferred presentment transaction made by the same or affiliated deferred presentment provider except as expressly provided in Section 5-18A-12.

"(o) (p) The licensee shall use a third party private sector database, where available, common database as designated by the supervisor to ensure that the customer does not have outstanding deferred presentment transactions that exceed five hundred dollars ($500).

"(g) The supervisor shall implement a common database with real-time access through an Internet connection for deferred presentment providers, pursuant to this section. The database shall be accessible to the supervisor and the deferred presentment providers to verify whether any deferred presentment transactions are outstanding for a particular person and whether the person is currently in an extended repayment plan. Deferred presentment providers shall submit the data before entering into each deferred presentment transaction in the format as the supervisor shall require by rule, including the customer's name, Social Security number or employment authorization alien number, address driver's license number, amount of principal, amount of interest and any fees, annual percentage rate, date of transaction, date the transaction is scheduled to be paid in full, date that the transaction is closed, whether the loan was secured using Social Security or disability benefits as proof of income, details on any extended repayment plan entered into for the transaction, and any additional information as is required by the supervisor. The supervisor may impose a fee not to exceed one dollar ($1) per transaction for data required to be submitted by a deferred presentment provider; however, this fee may not increase the fee paid by the borrower above the maximum provided by law. A deferred presentment provider may rely on the information contained in the database as accurate and is not subject to any administrative penalty or civil liability as a result of relying on inaccurate information contained in the database. The supervisor may adopt rules to administer and enforce this section and insure that the database is used by deferred presentment providers pursuant to this section.

"(r) Each licensee under this chapter shall annually, on or before December 1, file a written report with the supervisor containing such information as the supervisor may require concerning his or her business and operations during the preceding calendar year as to each approved office.
Reports shall be made under oath and shall be in the form prescribed by the supervisor.

"(s) Using the information reported to the supervisor under subsection (r) and the information contained in the database, the supervisor shall make and publish annually an analysis and recapitulation of such reports regarding the utilization of deferred presentment services.

"$5-18A-16.

"If, after a hearing, the supervisor finds that a person has violated this chapter or any administrative regulation issued pursuant to this chapter, the supervisor may take any one or more of the following enforcement actions:

1	"(1) Order the person to cease and desist violating
2	the chapter or any administrative rules issued pursuant
3	thereto.
4	"(2) Require the refund of any fees collected by
5	such person in violation of this chapter.
6	"(3) Order the person to pay to the supervisor a
7	civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000)
8	for each transaction in violation of this chapter.
9	"(4) Notwithstanding other violations, it is a
10	violation of this chapter for any person to do any of the 11	<pre>following:</pre>
12	"a. Directly or indirectly employ any scheme,
13	device, or artifice to defraud or mislead any borrower, to
14	defraud or mislead any lender, or to defraud or mislead any
15	person.
16	"b. Engage in the business of deferred presentment
17	services with any person physically located in Alabama through
18	the use of the Internet, facsimile, telephone, kiosk, or other
19	means without obtaining a license pursuant to this chapter.
20	"(5) In addition to any other penalties, any
21	transaction in violation of subsection (4) shall be
22	uncollectable and unenforceable."
23	Section 2. This act shall become effective on the 24	first day of the third month following its passage and
25	approval by the Governor, or its otherwise becoming law.
