10 (1) The qualified electors of the state or any 11 judicial or legislative district may petition for the recall 12 of any incumbent elected officer after the first year of the 15 incumbent.

16 (2) Within 90 days after filing with the Secretary

22 sufficient number of signatures have been obtained within the 23 90-day period, the Secretary of State shall call a recall
24 election for the sixth Tuesday following the determination.

25 (4) The incumbent shall continue to perform the 26 duties of the office until the recall election results are 27 officially declared.

1           (5) Other candidates may file for the office in the 2 manner provided by law for special elections, provided that no
3 primary elections may be held.

4           (6) For the purpose of this amendment, a recall
5 election shall be conducted in the same manner as other 6 special elections.

7           (7) The incumbent or other person who receives the 8 highest number of votes in the recall election shall be 9 elected for the remainder of the term.

10          (8) After one petition and recall election, no
11 further recall petition may be filed against the same officer
12 during the term for which he or she was elected.
