20 (c) If there is probable cause to believe that an

10 (e) A dog that is the subject of a dangerous or 11 nuisance dog investigation may not be relocated and ownership 12 shall not be transferred pending the outcome of the 13 investigation and hearing to determine whether to declare the 14 dog to be dangerous or a nuisance.

16 practicable. At the hearing, the district attorney shall 18 dog as defined by this act.

19 (1) If the court determines that the dog is 21 or death to a human being, the court shall order the dog to be 22 humanely euthanized by a licensed veterinarian or an 23 authorized animal control official.

24 (2) If the court determines that the dog is 25 dangerous or a nuisance, but has not caused serious physical 26 injury or death to a human being, the court shall issue orders 27 authorized by this act.

1 (g) The pleading and practice in all cases to 2 petition the court to declare a dog to be dangerous or a 3 nuisance under this act shall be in accordance with the 4 Alabama Rules of Civil Procedure. Any judicial determination 5 of a district court that a dog is dangerous or a nuisance may 6 be appealed to the circuit court pursuant to the requirements
7 of the Alabama Rules of Civil Procedure.

8 Section 4. (a) A dog may not be declared dangerous 9 or a nuisance in any of the following circumstances:

10 (1) When an injury or damage was sustained by a 11 person who, at the time of injury or damage, was committing a 12 willful trespass or other tort upon premises occupied by the 13 owner or custodian of the dog with the intent to commit a 14 crime or was committing a crime, or was teasing, tormenting, 15 abusing, or assaulting the dog, or who can be shown to have 16 repeatedly, in the past, provoked, tormented, abused, or 17 assaulted the dog.

18 (2) When the dog was protecting or defending a 19 person within the immediate vicinity of the dog from an 20 unjustified attack or assault.

21 (3) When the dog was responding to pain or injury or 22 protecting itself, its kennel, or its offspring.

23 (4) When a person or domestic animal was disturbing 24 the natural functions of the dog such as sleeping or eating.

25 (b) Neither growling nor barking, or both, shall 26 alone constitute grounds upon which to find a dog to be 27 dangerous or a nuisance.

1 Section 5. (a) (1) If a court determines that a dog 2 is dangerous or a nuisance, but does not order that the dog be 3 destroyed because evidence was insufficient to determine that 4 the dog caused serious physical injury or damage to the real 5 or personal property of another person, the owner of the dog 6 shall comply with the following requirements in addition to 7 any other requirements imposed by the court:

8 (2) Within 30 days of the issuance of the order 9 declaring the dog to be dangerous or a nuisance, the owner of 10 the dog shall be required to register the dog with the animal 11 control authority in the jurisdiction in which the animal is 12 kept or if there is no animal control authority in the 13 jurisdiction where the animal is kept, with the county health 14 department. All certificates of registration required to be 15 obtained under this section shall only be issued to persons 18 16 years of age or older which represent evidence of the 17 following:

- 18 a. A current certificate of rabies vaccination.
- 19 b. A current photograph of the dog.
- 20 c. That the dog will be confined to a proper 21 enclosure when the dog is outdoors and unattended.
- 22 d. That the dog has been neutered or spayed, unless 23 medically not needed.
- 24 e. That the dog has been permanently identified by 25 tattooing or injected with an identification microchip using 26 standard veterinary procedures.

1 f. A policy of insurance, such as homeowner's, or a 2 surety bond in the amount of not less than one hundred 3 thousand dollars ($100,000) covering the medical or veterinary 4 costs, or both, resulting from any future dangerous actions of 5 the dog.

6 g. If the owner of the dangerous or nuisance dog is 7 not the owner of the property where the dog is kept, proof
8 that the owner of the dog has obtained from the property owner 9 written permission for the dangerous or nuisance dog to be 10 kept there.

11 h. A notarized affidavit from the owner of the 12 dangerous or nuisance dog stating that the dog will be under 13 the control of a person 18 years of age or older when the dog 14 is not in a proper enclosure or inside a building and that the 15 dog will not be allowed outside the property of its owner 16 except in emergencies or for normal or necessary medical or 17 health-related treatment.

18 (b) If the owner fails to provide a proper enclosure 19 for the dangerous or nuisance dog or fails to provide a 20 certification of dangerous or nuisance dog registration to the 21 court within 30 days of the issuance of the declaration of the 22 court that the dog is dangerous or a nuisance, the dog shall 23 be humanely euthanized.

24 (c) The owner of the dangerous or nuisance dog shall 25 pay an annual fee to register the dog pursuant to this act.
26 The amount of the dangerous or nuisance dog registration fee 27 shall be established by the county.

1 (d) An animal control officer or law enforcement 2 officer may make whatever inquiry is deemed necessary to 3 ensure compliance with this act and any court order issued 4 pursuant to this act.

5 (e) Prior to a dangerous or a nuisance dog being 6 sold or given away, the owner shall advise the new prospective 7 owner in writing that the dog has been declared to be 8 dangerous or a nuisance by a court and shall provide the 9 animal control authority or county health department 10 information on where the dog is registered, the name, address, 11 and the telephone number of the new owner. The new owner shall 12 comply with all of the requirements of this act.

13 Section 6. The owner of a dog which has been 14 declared to be dangerous or a nuisance by a court may petition 15 the district court to remove the dangerous or nuisance dog 16 designation 18 months after the judicial declaration was 17 issued. A copy of the petition shall be filed with the 18 district attorney. The court may remove the dangerous or 19 nuisance dog designation and eliminate any requirements of 20 this act if the owner of the dog has not violated this act and 21 any orders of the court, and if the court is satisfied from 22 the evidence that the dog is no longer dangerous.

23 Section 7. (a) An owner of a dangerous dog who 24 violates this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable 25 by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars ($300) for 26 the first offense and not more than six hundred dollars ($600) 27 for each subsequent offense.

1 (b) If a dog that has previously been declared 2 dangerous, when unprovoked, attacks, assaults, wounds, or 3 causes severe physical injury, or kills a human being, the 4 owner or keeper of the dog shall be guilty of a Class C felony
5 punishable by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars 6 ($5,000) or imprisonment of not more than two years, or both.
7 The dog control authority may confiscate and, after the 8 expiration of 10 working days after the owner has been 9 notified, destroy the dangerous dog. The 10-day time period 10 shall allow the owner to request a due process hearing. The 11 owner shall be responsible for payment of all boarding costs 12 and other fees as may be required to humanely and safely keep 13 the dog during any appeal procedure.

14 (c) If a dog that has not been declared dangerous, 15 attacks and causes severe injury to or death of any human, and 16 the owner of the dog had prior knowledge of the dangerous 17 propensities of the dog yet demonstrated a reckless disregard 18 of the propensities under the circumstances, the owner of the 19 dog shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of 20 not more than three hundred dollars ($300) for the first 21 offense and, for a second or subsequent offense, punishable by 22 a fine of not more than six hundred dollars ($600). In 23 addition, the dog shall be immediately confiscated by an 24 animal control authority, held for 10 business days after the 25 owner is given written notification, and thereafter destroyed 26 in an expeditious and humane manner. This 10-day period shall 27 allow the owner to request a due process hearing. The owner

1 shall be responsible for payment of all boarding costs and 2 other fees as may be required to humanely and safely keep the 3 dog during any appeal procedure.

4 (d) This section shall not be construed to repeal 5 other criminal laws. Whenever conduct prescribed by any 6 provision of this act is also prescribed by any other 7 provision of law, the provision which carries the more serious 8 penalty shall be applied.

9 Section 8. An owner of a nuisance dog who violates 10 this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine 11 of not more than three hundred dollars ($300) for the first 12 offense and not more than six hundred dollars ($600) for each 13 subsequent offense.

14 Section 9. A law enforcement officer may enforce 15 this act by immediately removing the dog to an appropriate 16 facility, without requirement for a warrant or pending due 17 process, or both, if in responding to an incident covered by 18 this act, he or she determines that the dog poses a threat to 19 the public safety, regardless of the actions, omissions, or 20 intent of the owner.

21 Section 10. Act 2008-127 of the 2008 Regular Session
22 (Acts 2008, p. 168), is hereby expressly repealed.

23 Section 11. The provisions of this act are 24 severable. If any part of this act is declared invalid or 25 unconstitutional, that declaration shall not affect the part 26 which remains.

1 Section 12. This act shall become effective 2 immediately following its passage and approval by the 3 Governor, or its otherwise becoming law.
