4 RFD: Montgomery County Legislation
5 First Read: 19-APR-11

ENGROSSED

A BILL
TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

Relating to Montgomery County; to authorize a fee for certain services rendered by the sheriff; to provide for the distribution of the revenue.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1. (a) The Sheriff of Montgomery County may charge and collect a total fee of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25) per request for the following administrative services: Fingerprinting and, where authorized by law, criminal history investigations and reports thereon. The fee may not be charged for a law enforcement purpose on behalf of a law enforcement agency nor shall the fee apply to a person applying for a pistol permit.

(b) The sheriff shall remit the fees collected pursuant to this act monthly to the Montgomery County Commission for deposit in the county general fund.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately following its passage and approval by the Governor, or its otherwise becoming law.
