8 CONGRATULATING FLORENCE HIGH SCHOOL ON ITS FIRST
9 EVER CLASS 6A PLAYOFF VICTORY.

10

11 WHEREAS, the Alabama House of Representatives notes
12 with great admiration that the Florence High School football
13 team achieved its historic first playoff victory in Class 6A; 14 and

15 WHEREAS, Florence High defeated Clay Chalkville by a 16 score of 37-19 in the first round of the Class 6A playoffs;
17 the victory was a complete team effort for Coach Alvin Briggs'
18 Falcons; and

19 WHEREAS, quarterback Bryce Curtis threw two 20 touchdown passes and Beniquez Brown and Lamonte Thompson each 21 rushed for over 100 yards behind a dominating performance from 22 the Florence offensive line; the Falcons generated 455 total 23 yards from scrimmage in the victory; and

24 WHEREAS, this historic victory is surely a harbinger
25 of great things ahead for Coach Briggs and his Falcons; with 26 every game played in the spirit and tradition of good
27 sportsmanship and fair play, each member of the Florence High

1 School football team is to be praised for his integral part in 2 achieving this coveted goal; now therefore,

3 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 4 THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That the Florence High School
5 Falcons football team is congratulated on achieving its 6 school's first ever Class 6A playoff victory and for the 7 spirit and pride the players' exemplary efforts have brought 8 to them and their community and it is further directed that a
9 copy of this resolution be provided to the team with best
10 wishes for continued success in school, football and life.
