8 COMMENDING GLADYS T. COLEMAN FOR OUTSTANDING
9 PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENT.

11 WHEREAS, Mrs. Gladys T. Coleman has been an 12 exemplary leader in Fairfield, where she was born to the late 13 John Westley and Maggie Wilson Tarver; and

14 WHEREAS, Mrs. Coleman, a graduate of St. Mark's
15 Episcopal High School, continued her education at Miles 16 College, where she received her Bachelor of Arts degree; she 17 also holds a Master of Arts degree from Alabama A&M University
18 and has studied at Tuskegee Institute and the University of 19 Southern California; and

20 WHEREAS, Mrs. Coleman, who enjoyed a long and 21 distinguished career as an elementary educator in the 22 Birmingham City and Jefferson County School systems, is 23 revered by all her former students as an excellent teacher 24 with a genuine love for the children entrusted to her; and

25 WHEREAS, Mrs. Coleman, wife of the late former 26 Fairfield City Council President Jerry Coleman; has been an 27 active participant in politics throughout her life; she has

1           been involved with the Fairfield Voters League, Fairfield
2           Civic League, Fairfield Chamber of Commerce, Fairfield
3           Housewives League, Franklin Delano Roosevelt Club, Fairfield
4           Democratic Women, Democratic Club, Alabama Education
5           Association, American Federation of Teachers, Alabama
6           Democratic Executive Committee, and Jefferson County
7           Democratic Executive Committee, and was the first African 8           American to serve on the Fairfield School Board; and

9                   WHEREAS, Mrs. Coleman became a Christian at an early 10              age and has remained active in church throughout her life; she 11              is a member of Miles Chapel C. M. E.; and

12                   WHEREAS, Mrs. Coleman has received numerous 13              professional and civic recognitions for her leadership in 14              education and in the community; she is justly proud of a long
15              career of committed service to Fairfield and its children; now 16              therefore,

17                   BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 18              THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That we heartily commend Mrs.
19              Gladys T. Coleman for her leadership in Fairfield and the 20              State of Alabama and that, by copy of this resolution, we 21              extend our sincere good wishes for her future endeavors.
