8 MOURNING THE DEATH OF IDA LOU AUSTIN.
9

10 WHEREAS, we note with deep regret the passing of 11 Mrs. Ida Lou Austin at the age of 81 years; and

12 WHEREAS, Mrs. Austin, a native of Linden, moved with 13 her family to Selma at an early age; she received her 14 education in Selma schools; and

15 WHEREAS, for many years, Mrs. Austin was a member of 16 the Little Canaan Primitive Baptist Church; she was a
17 committed Christian who instilled those values in all her
18 children; she would later join the Calvary Missionary Baptist
19 Church, where she taught Women Adult Sunday School and served 20 on the Pastor's Aide Committee and the Usher Board; and

21 WHEREAS, as the eldest woman in her extended family,
22 Mrs. Austin played the role of matriarch to many of her
23 relatives, including Eva Phillips (John) Williams, Mary
24 Athalone, Mattie Rembert, Elizabeth (Rady) Olds, Otis Miller,
25 Isaac Fuller, Ruth Hunter, Diane Rudolph, and Will T. Fuller; 26 and

1           WHEREAS, a beloved daughter, mother, grandmother,
2   great-grandmother, and great-great-grandmother, Mrs. Austin
3   was preceded in death by her parents, Profit Jones and Mattie
4   Lou Jones; sister, Marie Hardy; sons, Profit Lee Austin
5   Barlow, Willie George Austin, Chester Stevenson Austin, and 6   Charles Austin; daughters, Mattie Marie Barlow, Ida Louise,
7   Minerva Jean, and Miss Ann Austin; and niece, Susan Jackson
8   Moore; and

9           WHEREAS, Mrs. Austin is survived by her children,
10   Hattie A. Martin (Archie) Mays, Gloria E. Austin, Reverend 11   Anthony J. Austin, and Irby H. Austin; daughter-in-law, Josie
12   Barlow; two special daughters, Mattie B. Thornton and Emma 13   Dubose Rembert; two grandsons-in-law, Charles Pierce and 14   Victor Sawyer; 24 grandchildren; 44 great-grandchildren; seven 15   great-great-grandchildren; and nine first cousins; and

16          WHEREAS, Mrs. Austin is remembered fondly as a
17   beacon of light to all who knew her; she was a gifted 18   storyteller who delivered life lessons with a healthy dose of 19   humor; she was loved by many for her wisdom, which will live 20   forever in the stories she passed on; now therefore,

21          BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 22   THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That with appreciation and 23   gratitude, the life of Mrs. Ida Lou Austin is hereby 24   celebrated in this special tribute and that, by copy of this 25   resolution, our sincere condolences are extended to her 26   family.
