8 RECOGNIZING BRUCE PORTERFIELD.
9

10 WHEREAS, it is a privilege to extend highest 11 commendation to an extraordinary Alabamian, Bruce Porterfield, 12 in recognition of his outstanding achievements while 13 overcoming adversity; and

14 WHEREAS, born to Daisy M. Porterfield on February 2,
15 1961, in Fort Deposit, he became an outstanding 16 student-athlete, graduating from Lowndes County High School in 17 1979 and earning a football scholarship to Alabama State
18 University, where he was a three-year starter as a running 19 back; he also received honors for high academic achievements,
20 maintaining an honor student status throughout his university 21 years; and

22 WHEREAS, while attending ASU, he became a member of 23 Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Incorporated, and was selected to 24 receive the Guy L. Grant Award, one of the highest honors 25 available to an undergraduate member of the fraternity; and

26 WHEREAS, during his student years, he began
27 experiencing symptoms of Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS),

1 also known as Lou Gehrig's Disease, and was informed by 2 doctors in 1985 that the incurable disease limited his life
3 expectancy to no more than three to five years; however, 4 through his devout faith and the strength of his 5 determination, along with the support of family and friends,
6 he has beaten the odds and survived for more than 20 years
7 longer than the maximum life expectancy; and

8 WHEREAS, a first-class athlete since grade school, 9 his skills and talent while at ASU provided him the 10 opportunity to sign on as a free agent to play in the NFL with 11 the Saint Louis Cardinals, before his body began to be 12 affected by ALS; and

13 WHEREAS, despite the effects of ALS, he is blessed
14 with a strong mind and indomitable spirit, and he remains
15 active in making his health care and spiritual decisions;
16 although now confined to bed, he is able to stand with support 17 from his loving family and friends; and

18 WHEREAS, every day of this inspirational life story
19 represents a miracle, and with his abiding faith, Bruce
20 Porterfield provides proof that all things are possible
21 through God, who is indeed a "Miracle Worker"; now therefore,

22 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 23 THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That in recognition of his 24 exceptional strength and courage, Bruce Porterfield is honored
25 and commended, and this resolution is offered in highest
