8 COMMENDING CAPTAIN JOSEPH GOULD FOR AUTHORIZING THE 9 POEM OLD GLORY.

10
11 WHEREAS, in a desire to recognize the demonstration 12 of the highest of civic virtues, love for one's country, we 13 extend highest commendation to Captain Joseph Gould for 14 authoring the poem Old Glory; and

15 WHEREAS, the poem Old Glory is included as part of 16 the presentation materials in numerous recognition ceremonies,
17 including Honor Flight, which pays tribute to our nation's 18 World War II veterans; and

19 WHEREAS, we are grateful for the continuing use of 20 Old Glory and for the creative spirit that served as its 21 inspiration; and

22 WHEREAS, Old Glory's author, United States Navy
23 Captain Joseph Gould (Retired) was born in Brunswick, Georgia,
24 in 1920 and graduated from the United States Naval Academy 25 with the Class of 1943 that graduated early in May 1942 in 26 order to be deployed for service in World War II; and

1           WHEREAS, during Captain Gould's 23 years of naval 2       service, he was assigned various commissions including service
3       on an aircraft carrier and submarine, served as Commander of 4       the LSM449 Amphibious Ship, served in Naval Intelligence,
5       served as Executive Officer of the USS Radford Destroyer,
6       served as Commander of the USS Silverstein DE534 Destroyer
7       Escort, served as Commander of 15 Ocean Mine Sweepers, and 8       concluded his military service assigned to the Pacific Fleet 9       as a Fleet Intelligence Officer at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii; and

10           WHEREAS, Captain Gould retired from the United 11       States Navy on November 1, 1965, and thereafter served as an 12       Assistant in the United States Navy Reserve Officers Training 13       Program at the University of California at Los Angeles, and 14       thereafter established the United States Navy Junior Reserve
15       Officers Training Program at San Clemente High School in San 16       Clemente, California, where he served as a Naval Science 17       Instructor for nine years; and

18           WHEREAS, in 2007, Captain Gould was inspired by his 19       nation and the flag of the United States of America and 20       authored Old Glory; and

21           WHEREAS, Captain Gould demonstrated the highest of 22       civic virtues, love for one's country, and is well-deserving 23       of recognition and gratitude for authoring the poem Old Glory; 24       now therefore,

25           BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 26       THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That we hereby honor and commend 27       Captain Joseph Gould for authoring the poem Old Glory and for

1        his distinguished military service, and this resolution is 2        offered in highest tribute and deepest gratitude to him, on 3        behalf of the citizens of the State of Alabama, who hold him
4        in great esteem.

5                    BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this 6        resolution be presented to Captain Joseph Gould in recognition 7        of his many outstanding accomplishments.
