8 RECOGNIZING APRIL 19, 2011, AS AMERICAN DIABETES
9 ASSOCIATION ALERT DAY.

10
11 WHEREAS, in the United States, it is estimated that 12 23.6 million people, or 7.8 percent of the total population, 13 are affected by diabetes; and

14 WHEREAS, the American Diabetes Association estimates
15 that more than half of all people with diabetes suffer from 16 Diabetic Peripheral Neuropathy; and

17 WHEREAS, Diabetic Peripheral Neuropathy often causes
18 intense pain, frequently described as aching, tingling, 19 burning, and numbness of the feet, which often results in 20 serious foot problems due to nerve damage; and

21 WHEREAS, diabetic nerve damage can also lessen the 22 ability to feel pain, heat, and cold, which means that 23 diabetic patients may not feel a foot injury, a stone in their 24 shoe, or a nail in their foot; and

25 WHEREAS, the rate of amputations in people with 26 diabetes is 10 times higher than for people without diabetes;
27 studies show that more than 60 percent of nontraumatic lower

1                   extremity amputations are due to Diabetic Peripheral
2                   Neuropathy; and

3                   WHEREAS, Diabetic Peripheral Neuropathy can occur
4                   whether a person has Type I diabetes, also known as juvenile 5                   diabetes, or Type II diabetes, which is typically adult-onset; 6                   and

7                   WHEREAS, Diabetic Peripheral Neuropathy accounts for 8                   more diabetes-related hospitalizations than any other 9                   complication; and

10                  WHEREAS, it is important that Alabamians with 11                  diabetes be aware of the dangers and warning signs of Diabetic 12                  Peripheral Neuropathy, and make healthy lifestyle choices to 13                  prevent the onset of this life-changing condition; now 14                  therefore,

15                  BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH 16                  HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That we hereby recognize April 19,
17                  2011, as American Diabetes Association Alert Day at the State
18                  Capitol.
