8 RECOGNIZING ALABAMA WOUNDED WARRIORS AND REQUESTING
9 THE STATE TO WAIVE CERTAIN RECREATIONAL FEES FOR WOUNDED
10 WARRIORS.
11

12 WHEREAS, the State of Alabama wishes to express its 13 appreciation for the sacrifices of all American servicemen and 14 servicewomen and, especially the sacrifices of America's and 15 Alabama's Wounded Warriors; and

16 WHEREAS, the State of Alabama welcomes all Alabama
17 wounded warriors and urges all state agencies to make 18 available all recreational parks, facilities, and resources
19 Alabama offers free of charge to wounded warriors; and

20 WHEREAS, Alabama welcomes all out-of-state wounded
21 warriors who have the sponsorship of a not-for-profit veterans
22 organization or who are sponsored by a military organization
23 (active, reserve, or National Guard) to hunt and fish within 24 the boundaries of the State of Alabama and state officials are 25 urged to provide full free access to all State of Alabama
26 parks and recreational areas; now therefore,

1 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH
2 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That we recognize all of America's 3 and Alabama's Wounded Warriors and urge the state officials
4 and departments to provide free access to state recreational
5 areas, parks, and hunting and fishing access to wounded
6 warriors.
