8 COMMENDING EDNA MAE MCCRACKEN MITCHEL MASON.

9
10 WHEREAS, with great pride and pleasure, we recognize 11 Edna Mae McCracken Mitchell Mason as an outstanding citizen; 12 and

13 WHEREAS, born on June 12, 1917, in Tuscaloosa
14 County, she was the daughter of John and Lucy McCracken and 15 the sixth child of nine; she worked as a telephone operator at 16 the Southern Bell Telephone Company at the offices in 17 Montgomery and Anniston; while in Anniston, she met her first 18 husband, Kenneth M. Mitchell, who was stationed at Fort
19 McClellan; her lovely daughter, Wanda Janette, was born in May 20 1944; and

21 WHEREAS, with much dedication, she worked and reared 22 her daughter as a single mother for a period of time after she 23 and her first husband divorced in 1945; she met her second
24 husband, James W. Mason, in 1949 and they moved to Windsor, 25 Connecticut, in 1951; she continued to work for Southern New 26 England Telephone Company and was active in her local Baptist 27 Church; in 1982, she returned to Tuscaloosa, Alabama; she

1 joined Open Door Baptist Church, where she remained an active
2 member until the necessity arose to move closer to her 3 daughter after being involved in an automobile accident; and

4 WHEREAS, with much faith and devotion, she is a
5 member of Farley Community Church; she cherishes her daughter,
6 three grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren; she has a
7 positive outlook on life and believes she is most blessed; a 8 remarkable woman who lives beautifully, she is truly deserving 9 of the significant honor bestowed upon her; now therefore,

10 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH
11 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That Edna Mae McCracken Mitchell
12 Mason is most highly honored and commended, and this 13 resolution is offered with heartiest congratulations to her in 14 recognition of being an outstanding citizen.
