8 MOURNING THE DEATH OF JUDGE ROBERT V. WOOLDRIDGE.
9

10 WHEREAS, it is with profound sorrow that we mourn
11 the death of Retired Municipal Judge Robert V. Wooldridge of 12 Tuscaloosa, Alabama, on February 25, 2013, at the age of 86 13 years; and

14 WHEREAS, Judge Wooldridge's passing leaves a void in 15 the lives of his loving family and his many friends; his 16 distinguished judicial service spanned 18 years, and he was 17 one of Tuscaloosa's longest serving municipal judges when he 18 retired from the bench in 2003; and

19 WHEREAS, born in Pickens County, he served with 20 honor and distinction in the United States Navy in World War
21 II; after his military service, he earned a Bachelor's Degree
22 in 1948 from The University of Alabama, returning three years
23 later to receive his Law Degree; he was serving as a Navy 24 Reserve officer when he was called up for the Korean War as he 25 was finishing his final law exams, and after returning for the 26 second time, he opened a law office in Tuscaloosa in 1953; and

1           WHEREAS, among his accomplishments, Judge Wooldridge
2       served as president of the Tuscaloosa Bar Association in 1972
3       and was a drafter and the original chairman of the Tuscaloosa
4       County Public Defender Commission, which was created in 1971;
5       he was appointed Municipal Judge in 1984 and retired in 6       January 2003, after which he continued to practice law until 7       closing his office in 2005; and

8           WHEREAS, widely respected as a judge who was 9       concerned about the proper application of the law to any 10      particular case, he understood law enforcement needs and 11      challenges as well as the rights of the accused to have a fair
12      trial; through the years, he combined common sense with a 13      strong knowledge of the law, and his unbiased rulings were 14      accepted even by attorneys who lost in his courtroom; and

15          WHEREAS, Judge Wooldridge was a valued member of the 16      community; although his presence will be greatly missed, his 17      memory will be cherished and his legacy will endure in the 18      hearts of those who were fortunate to know him; now therefore,

19          BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 20      THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That the death of Judge Robert V.
21      Wooldridge is recorded with deep sadness, and it is directed 22      that a copy of this resolution of tribute be provided to his 23      widow, Florene J. Wooldridge, with heartfelt sympathy to his 24      family, whose grief is shared by many.
