COMMENDING ROSALYN FABIANKE AND ALL OF THE VOLUNTEERS WHO COORDINATED THE SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION'S TRAVELING EXHIBIT, "THE WAY WE WORKED," IN RED BAY, ALABAMA.

WHEREAS, highest commendations and congratulations are herein proudly presented to Rosalyn Fabianke and all of the volunteers who diligently coordinated the Smithsonian Institution's traveling exhibit from Washington, D.C., and the inaugural Alabama tour for the Smithsonian Institution's Museum on Main Street (MoMS), "The Way We Worked," in Red Bay, Alabama; and

WHEREAS, Red Bay has the worthy distinction of being one of six cities, and the inaugural host town, in the State of Alabama to be selected as a destination point for this prestigious exhibit from Washington, D.C.; and

WHEREAS, "The Way We Worked," which was on view from September 14, 2013, to October 25, 2013, highlighted Red Bay, Northwest Alabama, and the work experience of America; and

WHEREAS, a total of 6,692 people from 41 states and four foreign countries attended the exhibit, breaking the

1 previous record listed by the Alabama Humanities Foundation
2 for the number of people attending a traveling Smithsonian 3 exhibit; and

4 WHEREAS, the first planning meeting was held under 5 the exceptional direction of Alabama Humanities Foundation's 6 Tom Bryant, Alabama Tourism Director Lee Sentell, and Alabama 7 State Representative Johnny Mack Morrow; and

8 WHEREAS, Project Director Rosalyn Fabianke's expert 9 guidance and leadership propelled the momentum of the project 10 and were instrumental in the success of the event; and 11 WHEREAS, the more than 100 volunteers known as 12 Doodlebugs, so named for Red Bay's first train, and docents

13 WHEREAS, the tireless dedication and hard work of 14 Rosalyn Fabianke and all of the volunteers who coordinated the 15 project allowed many Alabamians to experience culture and 16 celebrate their rich heritage; the sense of community, 17 significant contributions, and unwavering commitment to 18 excellence of these fine, altruistic citizens reflect immense 19 honor upon the Red Bay area and the entire State of Alabama; 20 now therefore,

21 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH 22 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That Rosalyn Fabianke and the many 23 volunteers who organized this magnificent event are highly 24 honored and commended, and this resolution is offered to them 25 in deepest admiration and appreciation, along with sincere 26 best wishes for continued success in all future endeavors.
