6

7 WHEREAS, from 1915-1923 during the Armenian
8 Genocide, one and one-half million ethnic Armenian Christian
9 men, women, and children as well as over one million Greeks, 10 Assyrians, Syrians, and others were massacred as part of the 11 planned complete eradication of those indigenous communities
12 by the Ottoman Turkish Empire during the first modern 13 genocide; and

14 WHEREAS, other cases of genocide followed, including 15 the Holocaust, the killings in Cambodia in 1975, the massacres
16 in Bosnia in 1992, the slaughter in Rwanda in 1994, and now in 17 the 21st century, the displacements and deaths in Darfur as 18 well as targeting of religious minorities by the Islamic State 19 of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) in the Middle East; and

20 WHEREAS, during World War II, a Polish lawyer of 21 Jewish decent, Raphael Lemkin, first coined the term 22 "genocide" to describe a coordinated plan of actions with the 23 purpose of annihilating a group itself by disintegrating a 24 group's social institutions, culture, language, national or 25 ethnic identities, religion, and economic existence while also

1 destroying the personal security, liberty, health, and 2 dignity, as well as the lives, of individuals belonging to the 3 group; and

4 WHEREAS, recognition and remembrance of the Armenian
5 Genocide, the Holocaust, and all cases of past and ongoing 6 genocide is a critical step in ensuring that similar 7 atrocities do not occur again and that we remain vigilant 8 against hatred, persecution, and tyranny; and

9 WHEREAS, Alabama is home to many Armenian families,
10 and Armenian-Americans living in Alabama have greatly enriched
11 the state through their leadership in business, agriculture, 12 academia, government, and the arts; and

13 WHEREAS, due to the loss of uncountable thousands of 14 Armenians and much of their ancient homelands, the memory of 15 the Armenian people and their struggles is now especially 16 necessary in order to preserve their unique history and 17 culture which they have shared with the world; and

18 WHEREAS, a special committee was formed in 19 Constantinople in March 1919 by a group of Ottoman Armenian
20 survivors, and because of that committee's efforts, the memory 21 of the victims of Armenian genocide was commemorated for the 22 first time among the Armenians of Constantinople in April 23 1919; and

24 WHEREAS, throughout history, numerous genocides
25 originated or stemmed from events that occurred in April, and

1 as a result, many institutions around the world have 2 designated April to be a month of genocide prevention and 3 awareness; and

4 WHEREAS, Governor Kay Ivey, on March 20, 2019,
5 proclaimed April 2019 as Genocide Awareness Month in 6 recognition of the Armenian Genocide; now therefore,

7 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH
