8 COMMENDING MRS. ANNIE PARKER ON HER 103RD BIRTHDAY.
9

10 WHEREAS, an especially festive occasion is on the 11 calendar as friends and family celebrate the 103rd Birthday of 12 a gracious and esteemed lady, Mrs. Annie Parker; and

13 WHEREAS, born on January 7, 1919, she was the second
14 of eight children born to Thomas and Agnes Pugh; Miss Annie
15 was married to Mr. Woodie Parker, Sr. for more than 52 years
16 before his passing in May of 1992; and

17 WHEREAS, Mrs. Parker is a loving and proud mother to 18 six children: Jerry Parker (Faye), Floresteen Smith (Richard), 19 Jessye Parker, Woodie Parker, Jr., Diane Murray (Dwayne), and 20 Janice Dunn (Ronnie); grandmother to seven grandchildren and 21 four great-grandchildren; Miss Annie is also a loving and 22 proud nonbiological mother to Carolyn and John "Bubba"
23 Jackson; and

24 WHEREAS, in life, one can choose to be happy, or one
25 can choose to be miserable; Miss Annie's family is so blessed 26 that she still chooses to be happy; continuously living an 27 exemplary life of strength and positivity; and

1 WHEREAS, she was always willing to volunteer for 2 activities that supported the community and schools; Mrs.
3 Parker's 103rd Birthday is surely a momentous occasion, as she 4 has been an inspiration to her family and all those who have 5 come to know her; now therefore,

6 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 7 THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That Mrs. Annie Parker is heartily 8 congratulated on the observance of her 103rd Birthday, and 9 this resolution is offered in highest tribute along with the 10 best wishes of the citizens of the State of Alabama.
