SYNOPSIS:

This bill would provide that a county commission is not liable for and may not be a party to a suit challenging the expenditure or use of public funds where a local law provides that the public funds are to be expended or used at the discretion of a single public official.

A BILL

TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

Relating to county commissions; to provide for a limitation of liability regarding the use of public funds under certain conditions.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1. (a) A county commission shall not be liable for or be a party to a suit challenging the expenditure or use of public funds where a local law provides that the public funds are to be expended, awarded, or used at the discretion of a single public official.

(b) For suits challenging the expenditure, award, or use of public funds as described in subsection (a), no damages or litigation costs may be recovered from funds within the control of the county commission.

Section 2. This act shall become effective on October 1, 2024.
