HR_____ CELEBRATING THE 13-1 VICTORY BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES IN THE 3RD ANNUAL "BATTLE OF GOAT HILL" LEGISLATIVE CHARITY SOFTBALL GAME.

WHEREAS, the third installment of the "Battle of Goat Hill" legislative charity softball game occurred on March 20, 2024, at Montgomery Riverwalk Stadium, the home of the AA Montgomery Biscuits; and

WHEREAS, the "Battle of Goat Hill" legislative charity softball game is conducted for the benefit of Big Oak Ranch, a faith-focused home for boys and girls; and

WHEREAS, the stars fell on Alabama for the March 20th game; a full color guard presented the national anthem; greetings were given by Senator Katie Britt and Governor Kay Ivey; celebrity guests included musician Riley Green, former Alabama Crimson Tide Football players Wesley Britt and Brodie Croyle, and baseball players Walt Simmons and Scott McClanahan; and

WHEREAS, the night began with a big bomb hit from MVP Runner-Up Majority Leader Stadthagen and an excellent delivery from the top of the House lineup; anchored by a world-class pitching performance by MVP Chris Blackshear, the going didn't get any easier for the Senate as the night went on; and

WHEREAS, although the Senate - with a little outside help and inside advantage - won the first two installments of the "Battle of Goat Hill," the House of Representatives clinched an undeniable 13-1 victory at the expense of the Senate, securing their hard-won and convincing retribution; and

WHEREAS, the relevant box score for the House is as follows: two runs in the first inning; two in the fifth; a resounding six runs in the sixth inning as the dagger began to plunge; and three runs in the seventh inning to clinch the win; most importantly, and for the first time in "Battle of Goat Hill" history, the box score contains no significant injuries; and

WHEREAS, the true highlight of the evening was the presentation of a generous donation to Big Oak Ranch home for boys and girls; also charitable was the presentation of a generous single run to the Senate in the final inning; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That the House of Representatives celebrates its 13-1 victory over the Senate in the 3rd annual "Battle of Goat Hill" legislative charity softball game and sincerely offers their services to their Senate colleagues in finding the nearest batting cage.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the many people, including law enforcement and military, who aided in the planning and operations of the softball game are fervently commended and thanked; and our highest commendations are given to Big Oak Ranch for their daily service to the youth of Alabama.
