4     SYNOPSIS:

5                 Under existing law, an individual is prohibited
6                 from possessing certain types of firearms.

7                 This bill would prohibit an individual from
8                 possessing a bump stock in a Class 1 municipality.

9                 This bill would also provide a criminal penalty
10                for violating this prohibition.

12                A BILL
13                TO BE ENTITLED
14                AN ACT

15

16

17                Relating to Class 1 municipalities; to prohibit
18                possession of bump stocks; and to provide criminal penalties
19                for violations.

20                BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

21                Section 1. (a) For the purposes of this section, the 22                term "bump stock" means any part, device, accessory, or 23                combination thereof designed or intended to be attached to or 24                installed on a firearm that, when installed on or attached to 25                a firearm, harnesses the recoil energy from firing the firearm
26                to generate a reciprocating action that causes the repeated
27                activation of the firearm's trigger.

28                (b) No person may possess, obtain, receive, sell, or
