HR _____ MOURNING THE DEATH OF OLA MAE LAMPLEY.

WHEREAS, with an overwhelming sense of loss, we mourn the death, yet celebrate the life, of Ola Mae Lampley of Brundidge, Alabama, whose passing has left a void in the lives of her family and friends; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Ola Mae Lampley, born in 1931, was the devoted wife of the late Mr. Hurrie D. Lampley, a hard-working farmer with whom she faithfully partnered in running a substantial agricultural operation in Brundidge, Alabama, despite her own formal education concluding in the ninth grade; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Lampley, a mother of eleven children, raised her family with deep moral conviction, purpose, and diligence, inspiring in them the values of hard work, perseverance, and education; and

WHEREAS, from these humble and honorable roots grew a family tree abundant with Tuskegee University alumni and professionals who have excelled across fields of agriculture, education, military service, health care, engineering, and public service; and

WHEREAS, her children include Jessie D. Lampley, a 1971 graduate of the Tuskegee University welding program; Joe Lampley, a 1976 Dean's List graduate in Political Science with minors in History and Philosophy; Brewnoise
