

HR239 INTRODUCED

1 HR239
2 YMC7G62-1
3 By Representatives Jones, Clarke, Drummond, Bracy
4 RFD:
5 First Read: 12-Mar-26

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

HR _____ MOURNING THE DEATH OF ANN NOBLES COLEMAN.

WHEREAS, the death of Mrs. Ann Nobles Coleman on March 8, 2026, is noted with sadness, and her life marked by grace, faith, and devotion is commended and celebrated with thanksgiving; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Coleman lived her life with elegance, courage, and dignity, embracing fashion and personal expression not merely as style, but as a reflection of her strength, confidence, and individuality; and

WHEREAS, at an early age she professed her faith in Jesus Christ and began a lifelong journey of service and devotion to the Lord; and

WHEREAS, she was a faithful member of Orange Hill Baptist Church in Grove Hill, Alabama, where she first dedicated her life to Christ, and after moving to Mobile, she continued her spiritual journey at Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church, where she joyfully served in the choir; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Coleman later became a devoted member of El Bethel Primitive Baptist Church under the leadership of the Reverend Dr. Jonathan L. Yates, and subsequently joined her beloved husband at Bethel A.M.E. Church, where she faithfully served in numerous capacities until her health declined; and

WHEREAS, she was preceded in death by her husband,

HR239 INTRODUCED

29 Howard; parents, Charlie Nobles (Ethel) and Flora Pogue
30 (John); brothers, Toles Nobles, Oneal, Frederick, Lloyd,
31 Larry, Emrol, and Joseph Pogue; sisters, J. Carolyn Shuford
32 and Erin Baldwin; brother-in-law, Milton Shuford; and 33 nephew, Jonweau; and

34 WHEREAS, left to cherish her memory are devoted
35 brothers, Melvin Pogue, Dwight Pogue, and Charlie Nobles
36 (Lesia); devoted sisters, Paulette Stokes, Valerie Cox
37 (Alphonso), and Donna Silas; sisters-in-law, Marcia and
38 Donna; and a host of devoted and loving nieces, nephews,
39 cousins, other relatives and friends; and

40 WHEREAS, Mrs. Coleman was a valuable member of her
41 community who loved her Heavenly Father and her family; she 42 formed many special friendships through the years; she will
43 be sorrowfully missed, but her influence remains, and her
44 memory will be forever treasured in the hearts of those 45 whose lives she shared; now therefore,

46 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 47 LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That while mourning the death of 48 Mrs. Ann Nobles Coleman, it is comforting to remember her
49 generous and gracious life, and this resolution is offered
50 to her grieving family with heartfelt sympathy.